TPO Inc. and Staffing Advisors Form Exclusive Partnership, Help Small to Mid-Sized Firms Attract Top Talent

Falls Church, VA – August 21, 2008 – TPO Inc., the longest-serving human resources outsourcing firm in the metro DC area, announced an exclusive partnership with Staffing Advisors, a staffing consulting company based in Olney, MD. Combining TPO's strategic approach to clients' personnel needs with Staffing Advisors' recruiting expertise, the two firms offer small to mid-sized businesses a comprehensive solution to finding and retaining key employees while cost-effectively competing with larger organizations.

"Despite the economic uncertainties, the competition for top talent in this region is still fierce. Finding and keeping the best people has never been more critical to business success," said Eve Framinan, president of TPO. "No organization can afford bad hires or lost productivity due to languishing recruiting efforts. Our clients demand fast, reliable and cost-effective recruiting support. From long experience, we know nobody delivers that better than Staffing Advisors."

"Our Results-Based Hiring Process® efficiently attracts top performers and sets very high expectations of them," explained Bob Corlett, president of Staffing Advisors. "But that cuts both ways, because top performers have equally high expectations of their employers. They expect and deserve world-class performance management and human resources support. It's imperative that organizations develop the right environment in order for performance to thrive, and TPO is the ideal partner for that."

Established in 1994, TPO offers human resource outsourcing services to small and mid-sized organizations; the firm's clients include nonprofits and corporations that cover a wide range of industries, from technology to healthcare to construction to a variety of professional services firms. As the first and most experienced outsourcing firm in the DC-Metro area, the company was specifically designed to deliver a noticeably different experience – one that seeks to understand the unique needs of each client and then craft solutions that make the HR function an effective driver of better business results.
